Dear Sir

Replying

to your note of the 2d I would say that I am willing to pay the figure you name²⁶ for photographs of Gully's Buddi²⁶ son and also Healy after Harding. I must however stipulate that the work be cleanly and carefully done or it will be useless for my purpose. Will this price entitle me to more than one photograph of each painting? Please have the work done as soon as you conveniently can and whenever the bill is forwarded it will be promptly paid. Can you inform me of the whereabouts of any other valuable modern photographs of which I might obtain?

Very truly

Mr. F. S. Barbarni,
Curator Corcoran Gallery
Washington,

Dear Sir,

I have received your letter permitting me to exhibit my picture
"Between Neighbors" in the Corcoran Gallery, and inclosing circular of Rules. I am now writing to the Director of the Museum in St.

Louis to send the picture to your charge immediately. I should be very much delighted if it could find sufficient favor to be acquired by the Gallery. Otherwise, at the expiration of the time set for its exhibition, I will indicate what shall ~~be~~ be done with it.

Very Respectfully

Dear Andrew:-

We have had so much to look after since our return home, that it has been impossible to write you until now. We were quite successful in our trip, securing Berendse in Washgton, H. B. Badell & Co., New York, and Bailey Barks & Badell in Philadelphia. The very best houses of the three cities. They were all pleased with the work and very anxious for the agency. We have also secured ~~the~~ Nathan, Hohmann & Co in San Francisco.

Steubenville, Ohio, U. S. A., we sold an order for export to France. As to the proposed removal to Worthington; we want to say that for the present year we will continue our experiments here, but the market is tight with us but more we can make and then if we more we shall have something to show. We have secured a graduate of Mithras (Philadelphia) School and we from the American Academy. and expect to make more for high artistic merit. Should we leave here more used of us to go into an incantation, and should we know the sacrifice would be too great. We have business and property here and could not afford to give you for an uncertainty. Besides we do not wish to be placed friends. When we have tried the market and no action of success then we shall consider Wadsworth and the kindness of the Crown and body people.

We certainly feel my grateful to you for your kind attention, and please remember us to the gentlemen to whom you introduced us.

Monsieur le Président

Sachant que vous recherchez les œuvres d'art remarquables, j'ai l'honneur de vous signaler un tableau hors d pair, peint il y a cinquante ans environ, et dont les journaux ont parlé au moment de son apparition au Salon.

pour la peinture et le dessin le tableau peut être comparé aux œuvres de Paulus Potter. Il représente des moutons au paturage, grandeur naturelle.

Il est probable que vous avez à Paris des représentants ou des agents que vous pourriez charger d'aller le voir. Il est chez Madame Rimbault, 43 Rue Cambon. Il suffirait de prévenir cette dame du jour et de l'heure où on irait le voir, car elle est quelquefois à la propriété d'autreuil.

 spoke from the moment of its appearance in the Salon In qualities of painting & drawing this picture can be favorably compared to the work of Paul Potter. It represents Sheep in pasture, life size. It is possible you may have an agent or someone in Paris to whom you could request to go to see the picture. It is at Madame Rimbault

Mr Chas M. Marsh

Dear Sir—

We have been some time trying to locate the title to the west 1/2 of Lot Five (5) in Square No 174. We find upon investigation that W.C. Morrison conveyed this ground to the Trustees of The Corcoran Art Gallery, being the west half of said lot five, the east half of same lot being conveyed by Stephen Elletts to some parties. Upon the west portion of this ground are two brick houses the roof of which are off and the storm water follows the girder and flooring and soaks through the wall of our adjoining house No 1723 E. St. causing us damage, and well creates in our house a penum which we wish to avoid, will you be kind enough to give this matter attention as soon as possible and oblige yours respectfully Wescott & Wilcox.
